

ABOUT SHANITA

“DO WHAT YOU LOVE IN THE SERVICE OF PEOPLE.”

AUTHOR | EMPOWERMENT SPEAKER | COACH | TRAINER

ShaNita Nolan is the Founder & Chief Servant Leader of Circle of Trust Leadership (COTL). ShaNita is a DC/MD/VA-based John Maxwell Executive Director/Certified Speaker, Coach, and Trainer specializing in personal, professional, and leadership development; and communications. With 20+ years' experience of leadership and business experience that spans across the public and private sectors, her career journey has provided her unique leadership experiences in various fields including technology, manufacturing, consulting, telecommunications, contracting, and state and federal government. All of these experiences afforded her many opportunities to build and equip individuals and teams.

As a servant leadership expert and empowerment speaker, ShaNita partners with individuals who value personal growth and companies that desire to sharpen the leadership skills of their current team; and to develop a larger pool of emerging leaders in their organizations.

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

ShaNita's 20+ years' of leadership and business experience includes, but is not limited to: culture development, customer service and sales training, human resources infrastructure development for start-ups, and professional and leadership development program design.

ShaNita earned a B.S. degree in Business Administration and an M.S. degree in Human Resources Management and Development. She is currently in pursuit of a Doctorate in Ministerial Leadership. As a graduate adjunct professor at the University of Missouri, Nolan instructed students on human resource management and development in the public and non-profit sector. She is also a certified Human Behavior Consultant; and part of Ivolution Communications global network of trainers, coaches, and speakers. ShaNita also serves on the Prince William County Chamber Women's Leadership Council, and on the board of the Elite Entrepreneurs Circle.
